

Casino people

At Gala Casinos we know how important it is to get the simple things right, like being friendly, smart and responsive – all the usual stuff. But we go further because we think brilliant service is about creating brilliant experiences. It's the little human touches and going the extra mile that makes every customer feel special.

Our Gala Dealers are easy to spot. They act in unusual ways as it's the only way they know how. But it's natural – not programmed. They are honest, sharp, fun, and up for it... simply put, our Gala Dealers are brilliant.

If you're brilliant too, you've got what it takes to become a Gala Dealer at one of the UK's most successful casinos. Plus a chance to work somewhere with a real buzz. We'll reward your experience and give you the opportunity to develop a truly brilliant career. You've got an amazing range of gaming skills, now you need to bring them to our table. So what's stopping you?
