

Mitch Garber announced as keynote speaker for International Gaming Awards

London, 1st October 2009.

Online Gaming Expert & Harrah's Interactive CEO Mitch Garber is the featured speaker at the International Gaming Awards 25th January, 2010 in London.

Mr. Garber has been invited to present his view on the future of Online Gaming.

The International Gaming Awards (IGA) was launched in 2008 with the aim to support International charities and celebrate excellence and achievements in the gaming industry.

Previously Garber held the position of CEO of Party Gaming and previous to that he was the CEO of Optimal Payments Inc. His background was originally as an attorney and he had the distinction of opening the first ever gaming law practice in Canada where he advised US casino operators and equipment suppliers. Mr. Garber is currently CEO of Harrah's Interactive Entertainment (HIE).

The third annual Awards ceremony, presented by Clever Duck Media, is expected to bring together the international gaming community with participants from some of the most exciting and fastest growing online and offline companies in the world. The ceremony will take place 25th January 2010 in London.
